Consequently they are under the jurisdiction of the local Ordinary and the various parishes and institutions are incorporated in the Archdiocesan and Diocesan listings. # National Catholic Welfare Conference

Address—1312 Massachusetts ave., N. W., Washington, D. C. Phone: REpublic 7-3553.

The National Catholic Welfare Conference, established in 1919, as the successor to the National Catholic War Council, one of the seven welfare agencies recognized by the U. S. Government during World War I, is an organization of the members of the Hierarchy of the United States, for the purposes specified in the Brief "Communes" issued by His Holiness, Pope Benedict XV, April 10, 1919, and in the Letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius XI, of August 10, 1927. The National Catholic Welfare Conference is not a council or legislative assembly, as contemplated by the Sacred Canons, and therefore, the resolutions of the Bishops at the meetings of the National Catholic Welfare Conference do not have the force of law. Every Bishop may make use of any service offered by the Conference through its Departments, Committees, general secretary, and staff officers at the National Headquarters. The Conference aims to facilitate discussions of policies affecting the interests and activities of the Church in the United States.

Every Bishop of the Church in the United States and its territories and possessions, whether residential or titular, ipso facto has active and passive voice in the Conference.

The Conference is incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia and has for its objects the unifying, coordinating and organizing of the Catholic people of the United States in works of education, social welfare, immigrant aid, civic education and other activities.

The Conference is administered by a board composed of ten Bishops elected at the annual meeting of the Hierarchy of the United States to serve for the term of one year. No elected Bishop shall be eligible to serve more than five consecutive terms, but he may be again eligible for election after one year out of office.

It has distributed such aid in more than 60 foreign countries, working through its own representatives stationed in these countries and through the indigenous national Catholic welfare agencies and in cooperation with many governmental and intergovernmental agencies.

The ever-changing course of events in the intervening years since the end of World War II necessitated the expansion of the American Bishop's Agency far beyond that of the emergency character for which it was established.

In the last two years there has been an extension of help to a number of countries in South America to aid a number of newly-organized voluntary agencies in that area to meet needs which heretofore have gone unprovided. Africa, where the newly-stirred spirit of independence has been accompanied by havoc, destruction, and disorganization, has also received aid. THE THIRD ORDER SECULAR OF ST. FRANCIS

A religious order founded by St. Francis of Assisi in 1221, to afford seculars, the clergy and laity, an opportunity to live according to the Gospel counsels through the observance of an approved rule of life. Since 1921, the Fraternities in the United States and Canada have united in Tertiary Provinces, and these in turn are federated into a federal organization known officially as the Third Order of St. Francis in North America.

In 1941, the Administrative Board of Bishops of the N.C.W.C. designated the Most Rev. Christian H. Winkelmann, Bishop of Wichita, as Episcopal Protector of the Third Order. He was succeeded in 1945 by His Eminence Richard Cardinal Cushing, Archbishop of Boston.

The Franciscan Provincial superiors form its Directive Board, while the regular functions of the Third Order are administered by an Executive Board and the Third Order Commissaries. The office of the national secretary (29 S. La Salle st., Chicago 3, Ill.) serves as a clearing house for information respecting the Third Order in all its phases. The present membership in the United States and Canada is 250,000 distributed among about 1800 local Fraternities and 31 Provinces.

It is the official agency of the Holy See through which Catholic children of the world make their contribution of prayer and alms to the spiritual and temporal welfare of children in mission lands. Since its beginning, it has enjoyed the personal favor of every Pope. In 1926, Pope Pius XI elevated the Society to Pontifical Rank. Holy Childhood endeavors to attain its end through the united efforts of all Catholic children who as members are taught to cooperate in propagating the Faith by means of study, prayer and sacrifice. All funds are distributed annually to every part of the mission world by a Pontifical Commission, a generous allotment being provided for the Home Missions of the United States. All allocations sent to the Missions through the agency of the Holy Childhood are used solely in the interests of the children of these missions.
